Act 1. Scene 2: Wednesday afternoon
Act 2. Scene 1: Ten minutes later
Act 2. Scene 1: Thursday evening
Act 3. Friday evening

The Cast – “Cupid Wore Skirts”

Andy Coulter – Widowed antiques dealer – Played by Tommy Kilroy. A rather quick reaction to a wager gets him into a predicament and a host of opportunities with hilarious implications.

Daphne Coulter – Newly married daughter of Andy Coulter – Played by Colette Gallagher in her first role with the group. The news that Daphne is pregnant sets her thinking of ways to ensure that her widowed father, her brother and grandfather are looked after now that she will be unable to maintain the house for them.

Brian Coulter – Andy Coulter's son and Daphne's brother – Played by Kevin Doherty. Destined for a career in music and currently looking for a singer for his band.

Grandad Coulter – Andy's father – Played by Seán Doherty. A bit deaf and a fondness for the gargle he has a few stories to tell.

Harriet Courtney – Spinster sister-in-law of Andy - Played by Cathy Flynn. Helping to keep an eye on Andy's account books and over Andy and his family since he became a widower. Keeps everyone on their toes.

Ingrid Hansen – Swedish singer who has answered an advert for a singer in Brian's band but gets more that she bargained for. Played by Josephine Gillespie.

Gladys Gilmore – Serial husband hunter with family in tow. Played by Breege Kelly. Not a big fan of antiques and has a few redecoration ideas for Andy.

Isobel Stanfield – Prim and proper spinster - Played by Joan Rutledge. Looking for a man after a recent tragedy in her life. About to discover what she's been missing for forty years.

Ronnie – Brian's friend – Played by Niall Gillespie.
