Meet the cast:

Michael Mullen:

The man of the house has an eye for a good gift. The new neighbours cause some concern and thus there is some marital friction. Played by Dermot O'Boyle in his second appearance with the group.

Noreen Mullen:

Michael's wife is looking forward to her anniversary present. Pleasantly surprised with the new neighbours. Played by Marian Howley. No stranger to the stage having preformed with Crossmolina Drama Group. This is Marian's first performance with the group in Ardagh.

Jason Mullen:

Michael and Noreen's son is a student of engineering with an eye for the ladies. Played by Cormac Flynn in his first role on stage in Ardagh.

Charlie Mullen:

Michael's scheming brother who has had a traumatic experience and needs "rest". Played by Tommy Kilroy who needs no introduction. Veteran of many productions in Ardagh.

Ingrid Nolan:

The beautician and snob who has moved in next door. Has plenty of tips (beauty and otherwise) for the neighbours but may have more in common with them than she knows!!! Played by Ailish O'Brien who returns to Ardagh for this role.

Claude Nolan:

A detective garda who meets a familiar face when he visits the neighbours. Open to discuss an "arrangement" to suit himself. Played by Seamus Heverin who returns after a break.

Kelly Nolan:

Claude and Ingrid's daughter who has caught the eye of her new neighbour. Played by Michelle Scarry in her first role with the group.

Maisie Looney:

An obliging, larger-than-life local woman who has a reputation and agrees to help Charlie, but there is a price. Another who needs no introduction having performed many times with the group. Joan Rutledge plays Maisie.

Dolores Caffrey:

A straight talking no nonsense friend of Noreen's who is instantly impressed with the new neighbours. Played by Josephine Gillespie who has appeared in many roles with the group.
